A MULTI-DAY CELEBRATION OF PHOTOGRAPHY IN DOWNTOWN CHICAGO

The Festival, held annually in downtown Chicago, attracts approximately 900 artists, photographers, and photo enthusiasts each year.

The 17th annual Festival will take place from September 17th - 20th, and will be headquartered at the Student Center at Columbia College Chicago.

Filter Photo hosts national and international portfolio reviewers, welcomes renowned speakers and workshop teachers, and organizes exhibitions, gallery tours, and networking events during the Festival. The majority of programming takes place at the Student Center at Columbia College Chicago, with additional exhibitions and networking events at Filter Space, the Museum of Contemporary Photography, and other partner institutions.

- Approximately 40% are emerging or established professionals, 30% are students in photography programs, and the remainder are a blend of educators, curators, and photography enthusiasts.
- Approximately 75% are age 30 - 55 years. 20% are age 18-29.
- The two types of photography most represented at the Festival are fine art and documentary.

By sponsoring the 17th Annual Filter Photo Festival, your institution will gain visibility through our extensive marketing campaigns, reaching a wide audience of photographers, gallerists, collectors, curators, and patrons who are invested in photography, the arts, and community.

- Sponsorship with Filter Photo offers table space at the Festival that can be used for a variety of attendee-focused activities, as well as the benefits of online marketing and advertising exposure throughout the year.
- Our print marketing campaign includes the production of posters, Festival programs, and postcards. These are branded with sponsors' logos and distributed throughout Chicago and via a number of national photographic venues.
- Filter Photo's electronic marketing campaign includes the use of sponsor banner ads in e-mail blasts issued throughout the year. Filter Photo uses these e-mails to promote Festival and Filter Space programming.

WHY I ADORE CHICAGO'S FILTER PHOTO FESTIVAL

"Let me tell you why I adore Chicago's Filter Photo Festival. The combination of portfolio reviews and events, along with a handful of carefully chosen workshops, makes this Festival truly rich in offerings, without being overwhelming to its participants or surrendering its distinctive personal ambience. Their special recipe keeps a stellar cast of reviewers and presenters returning for the Filter experience each fall."
